

NIH Public Access Policy Presentation

Are you preparing a manuscript from your NIH-funded research? If so, then you may be required to comply with the NIH Public Access Policy.

This presentation will provide an overview of the NIH Public Access Policy including the steps involved in complying with the policy and how to demonstrate compliance. There are four scheduled presentations with two on each campus (Danforth and WUSM).

Becker Medical Library, Room 601A:

Tuesday, September 15, 2009, 2:00-3:00 pm
Tuesday, November 10, 2009, 2:00-3:00 pm

Arc Presentation Room, Olin Library Level A, Danforth Campus:

Tuesday, September 22, 10:30-11:30 am
Thursday, November 12, 2009, 3:30-4:30 pm

Intended Audience: NIH-funded authors, grant managers or administrative assistants.

*Please note that this presentation is open to all NIH-funded authors, grant managers or administrative assistants from both campuses.

TO REGISTER: Select the desired NIH Public Access Policy class session from the class listing: <https://aladdin.wustl.edu/medlib/Projecti.nsf/classcalendar>. Select "Register" to complete a registration form for the class. Registrations are highly encouraged to ensure a seat. No fee.
