

Instructions for use of the Federal Funding Addendum

1. Sign and date the Federal Funding Addendum. The corresponding author can sign on behalf of all authors.
2. Staple the Federal Funding Addendum to the publisher's copyright transfer or publication agreement form.
3. Write "Subject to attached addendum" below your signature on the publisher's copyright transfer or publication agreement form. This phrase along with your signature serves to inform the publisher that you accept the publisher's agreement only if the publisher signs the attached Federal Funding addendum.
4. Make copies of all the forms for your records.

Federal Funding Addendum

“Journal acknowledges that Author retains the right to provide a copy of the final manuscript (peer-reviewed version) to the NIH, or other federal funding agency that supported the Author's research, upon acceptance for Journal publication, for public archiving in PubMed Central or other government-sponsored digital repository as soon as possible but no later than 12 months after publication by Journal.”
